

FEDERAL DRY FIGHT PLAN IS OUTLINED

PREVENTIVE ENFORCEMENT TO BE GOVERNMENT AIM

HAYNES MAKES PUBLIC COORDINATION POLICY

Federal Forces to Concentrate on Enforcement Methods of Prevention and "Higher Ups"—Permits to Be Watched.

Washington.—Prohibition Commissioner Haynes has made public the Coolidge administration's coordination policy for the enforcement of the Volstead act.

In a formal statement, Haynes declared the federal government will devote its energies to preventive enforcement that will supervise withdrawals of bonded liquor, concentration of bonded whisky, supervision of industrial alcohol plants and permits. This phase of the undertaking, according to Haynes, rests entirely with the federal authorities. Minor violations of the prohibition law will be left to the officials of the various states. Minor violations include bootlegging by individuals and the individual manufacture of illicit liquor.

Commissioner Haynes stated that if state authorities can be depended on faithfully to enforce minor violations, the federal agents will have the time and strength to deal with the larger bootlegging rings and border conspiracies against the prohibition measure.

Excellent cooperation has been received in many sections, Haynes said. Federal officials have ascertained, through a survey, that there are 200,000 peace officers in the various states authorized to enforce the prohibition laws and, according to the commissioner, if all respect their oath of office, the number is sufficient to cope with violations of the law.

"AMERICAN PLAN" SAID TO BE BIG BOOST FOR INDUSTRY

San Francisco.—Following a survey of labor and working conditions here made by the Industrial Association officials, it is claimed that 85 per cent of all men in this city who are engaged in manual toil are working under the American plan, originated and sponsored by the association in 1921 in an effort to throw off the grip of labor unions on the economic power of San Francisco. The complete transformation claimed, as represented by these figures, is emphasized by a comparison with conditions three years ago, when more than 90 per cent of labor in San Francisco was under closed shop conditions.

It is also claimed that as a result of this general trend of labor toward the American plan, employment in this city is much more continuous than probably in any other place in the United States and that the modern and advanced working conditions elicit no complaint.

FINANCIAL CONDITIONS HERE BETTER THAN IN THE EAST

San Francisco.—Sam Livingston, New York representative for Livingston Brothers of this city, in San Francisco to acquaint himself with the local needs before the opening of the holiday season, describes the business prospects and general outlook in New York as "hopeful." "There is very little unemployment. The merchants, however, are proceeding with caution; they have great expectations for the coming year, particularly if the European market approaches stabilization.

"California business conditions I find several degrees better. Perhaps this is because California is farther removed from Europe and its disturbance and is naturally less affected by it. I always like to come to California, and I am always sorry to go. It is wonderful, the freedom and out-of-door life, that can be enjoyed here the year around. No place else can compare with it."

Demand Ousting of King

Athens.—The immediate removal of King George of Greece and the ousting of his entire dynasty are demanded by Greek republicans. General Pangalos, army leader, and Admiral Hadjikyriakos, commander-in-chief of the navy, joined in urging the election of the king. "We are interpreting popular feeling, representing the people, the army and the navy when we ask for the immediate removal from Greece, not only of King George, but of the whole dynasty, which has systematically violated the constitution and recently provoked civil war," declared Hadjikyriakos.

VOLUNTEERS CALLED TO FIGHT FIRE ON MOUNT TAMALPAIS

San Rafael.—Starting in the brush on what is known as the "pipe line ridge" on the slopes of Mt. Tamalpais above Mill Valley, a fire swept down the hillside and for a time menaced Mill Valley, but was controlled. More than 150 men, directed by Fire Warden E. B. Gardner of the Tamalpais forest fire district, fought the blaze, which is believed to have been started by a carelessly thrown cigarette. The fire was not discovered until after it had burned over a large area and was sweeping down Cascade canyon toward the town. Backfiring was resorted to, to save summer cottages on the outskirts of Mill Valley. A pumping engine sent from Mill Valley was forced to turn back because of the thick underbrush.

The fire sent up a thick column of white smoke which could be seen for miles in Marin county and the San Francisco bay district.

CIRCLE ENTERTAINED BY MRS. CLENDENING

Mrs. E. K. Clendening was hostess to the Pundita Circle Wednesday afternoon. It being the Club's chrysanthemum day, the house was very tastily decorated in that choice flower using Mrs. W. H. Stray's prize winners to good effect.

Miss Bozena Kalas rendered a piano solo the "Country Garden Dance" in her charming style.

Mrs. Leo Sheehan gave a very interesting and instructive talk on the culture of chrysanthemums.

Miss Helen Kalas, whose sweet voice is always in demand, sang a group of four pretty flower songs. They were: Rose's Cup—Stevenson; With a Water Lily—Grieg; First Primrose—Grieg; Admonition (Roses and Thorns) by Watts.

Mrs. A. F. Langrum of San Francisco, sister of Mrs. Clendening, who recently returned from Hawaii, gave a very interesting talk on the sights of the islands.

Mrs. Clendening was assisted by Mrs. W. H. Stray and Mrs. J. K. Tate in serving light refreshments.

"CHINA OF TODAY" CLUB SUBJECT

"China of Today" was the subject for Monday's meeting of the Country Woman's Club. The committee, Mrs. Ellen R. Smith, Mrs. H. P. Bean, Mrs. L. T. Lenox, had prepared an excellent program.

Mrs. Bean read an excellent paper on the present economic situation in that country, where outside of a few of the larger cities, man power is still common and the cheapest. They are freight and passenger haulers, propel the boats, till the soil, and do practically all labor by hand. There is no child labor law and children of six years operate machines in the cotton mills. It is a country marvelously rich in undeveloped resources.

"The Political Aspects of China" were presented by Mrs. Lenox who read two authoritative articles dealing with that phase of life. At present everything is chaos, altho the government is being run under the Nan King Provisional Constitution. An editorial, "From: Boycott to Bayonet" treated of the change in policy of Japan toward China.

Mrs. Smith's share of the program was the educational conditions with which she has personal knowledge thru her son and his wife who are engaged in that work there. Her paper was full of interesting information and viewed more optimistically the future welfare of the country, resulting from the increasing numbers of young people who are receiving university education in foreign countries.

One of the very pleasant parts of the program was a piano solo by Miss Patrice Smith, a waltz in E Flat by Chopin and an encore, a Prelude by Chopin.

The committee on hall rental reported encouraging prospects. The income from the social hall will be used to defray expenses of the whole building, taxes, insurance, lights, heat, etc.

P.T.A. FEDERATION SESSION AT CAMPBELL

San Jose and Santa Clara Federation of P. T. A. held an interesting all day session in the Campbell Grammar School Auditorium on Monday of this week.

The president, Mrs. Charles Borchert, of a San Jose, occupied the chair. The roll call showed all officers of the Federation present. As there was a great deal of routine business to be disposed of no time was given to program or set speeches.

One of the items of interest was the appointment of a Ways and Means Committee which is to be composed of members from all parts of the county and which will have charge of plans both for raising money and providing "get together" entertainments during the year.

Plans were discussed for extension work in several parts of the city and county.

Mrs. C. E. Kunze, of Mountain View, chairman of Education for the Sixth District P. T. A., introduced the new publication, The Parent-Teacher Voice, which is to be published quarterly in the interests of the district. Subscription price will be 30 cents or ten cents per single copy.

Basket lunch was served in the school cafeteria, the Home and School Club of Campbell generously providing coffee, tea and chocolate. During luncheon Mr. Cuthbertson addressed the gathering in his usual entertaining manner and spoke seriously of several legislative measures which the P. T. A. should endorse.

The attendance was good, over one hundred ladies being present, but some disappointment was expressed by the visitors at the small number of Campbell members present as they had hoped to meet and become acquainted with them.

SERVICES AT Y. W. GREATLY APPRECIATED

Mrs. Vaude Putnam Sanders, who has been in charge of part of the physical education work at the Y. W. C. A. for several years, tendered her resignation some time ago, which went into effect Tuesday.

After a vacation of about two weeks, Mrs. Sanders will open a studio in the St. James hotel, where she will have private pupils her time being well engaged already.

Mrs. Sanders took up the dancing classes at the Y. W. when that branch of work was in its infancy and has built up a strong department. In fact the work has grown to such a degree that it is really too strenuous for one person to handle.

Mrs. Sander's decision to leave the Y. W. was received with much regret and she was urged to reconsider her plan, but felt that the new work would be more satisfactory. She was tendered a dinner by the Y. W. Staff at the home of Mrs. W. M. Case, the general secretary, and was presented with a beautiful bracelet as a token of their sincere appreciation of her untiring efforts in behalf of the institution and those attending the classes.

Bohnett and Douglas Cutting. As in the past this is a supper to which the public is invited. A charge of 50 cents is made for this "big eat" and the program will be free to all who wish to remain.

Hear Edmund Vance Cooke Thursday evening.

Edmund Vance Cooke is coming to Campbell. Prepare for his arrival and stay. This noted author, actor and reader has been secured for a one night entertainment, November 15, at the Campbell Union Grammar school auditorium. This will be given as a financial benefit for the high school P. T. A. and the Home and School Club but will be of great benefit generally to all who hear him.

For the past year Mr. Cooke has been one of the big drawing cards for a Chautauqua circuit, and Campbell community is very fortunate in securing the entertainer.

Mrs. L. Shelley, president of the P. T. A. and Mrs. S. N. Hedegard, president of the Home and School Club are making a strenuous publicity campaign to fill the big auditorium to capacity.

As it is only because of his sister and friends being in Campbell that we are favored with an entertainment by such a noted artist it is only fitting that he should receive the courtesy of a large audience. Let it be known that residents of Campbell community are a class that appreciate good entertainments.

BASKET THROWERS PLAY TOMORROW EVE

Campbell Hi basketballers will meet the C. S. S. A. team of Los Gatos at our new gym Saturday evening. It is the plan of the management to have a double header and a suitable contestant for the B class team is being hunted.

A charge of 25 cents will be made to cover expenses of the team and a good turn out is expected. The new gym, it is hoped, will increase the popularity of basketball here as games will always be played inside, rain or shine.

Campbell's unlimited team gives promise of some speed. The players are: forwards, F. Blaine, S. Reed, A. Bonaccorso, W. Murphy; centers, W. Robinson, C. Nelson, D. Dean; guards, B. Reed, H. Shelley, R. Steindorf, J. Duncan. Give these boys your support by attendance at the games.

The high school girl basketballers met and defeated the Santa Clara tossers but went down before the South San Francisco team last week. They were accompanied on their trips by Mrs. Dart, coach and Miss Jenkins. The team lined up as follows: Forwards, Mary Lopes, Anna Lund; touch center, Ruth Miller; side center, Meriam Lynn; guards, Amelia Viera and Wilma Smith; substitutes, Eva Robinson and Katherine Aldrich.

CAMPBELL GROWERS WIN MANY PRIZES

At the beautiful display of chrysanthemums gathered in the Chamber of Commerce hall in San Jose, Campbell displays were among the finest there. Mrs. Alison was awarded a first prize for a large vase of yellow mums, and two seconds, one for a single Buckingham, and the other for a basket.

Mrs. Stray won three firsts and two seconds. The firsts were for twelve in one vase; for three in one vase; and for the largest flower exhibited.

The seconds were for a yellow Turner, and a bronze color.

Next year we hope that Campbell may have another display of its own.

Consolidation Into Comparatively Few Systems of All the Railroads

By SENATOR A. B. CUMMINS, in Address to Iowa Legislature.

There is no man in this world who is more earnest than I am for the reduction of railway rates. I know how burdensome they are upon all industry, and especially upon a farmer who has been, and probably still is in many instances, selling his products at less than cost.

There is but one way, however, in my judgment, through which the whole body of rates can be materially reduced, and that way lies through a reduction in the cost of maintenance and operation. The wages of the railway workers constitute about 60 per cent of the total expense of maintenance and operation. With the present cost of living, it is my judgment railway wages cannot be and ought not to be, in justice, substantially lessened, and they may have to be increased. We cannot control, and ought not to control, the price of supplies.

There is but one way to reduce cost of operation materially, and it is by consolidating all the railroads into comparatively few systems, and while I cannot discuss that subject at this time I venture to say that with proper consolidation, and with efficient management, the railroads can render more and better service than they now render at a cost of $500,000,000 per year less than they now expend.

ADVERTISING CALIFORNIA

More money will be spent for advertising by Californians Inc., in the second campaign, which is now on. than was expended last year, more publication will be utilized and vastly more readers will be reached, according to the report made by Dr. B. M. Rastall, manager, to the Board of Directors. The enlarged plan formulated by Dr. Rastall was approved and the directors appropriated $250,000 for advertising space in the second advertising campaign.

Californians Inc. advertised last year in publications having a combined actual circulation of 17,000,000 and reaching, it was estimated, more than fifty million persons. This year, newspapers and periodicals with a combined circulation of 23,000,000 will be used, with a corresponding increase in the number of persons who actually read the copy. Included in the list are ten national magazines, twenty-five metropolitan newspapers, thirty agricultural journals and 15 industrial and trade publications. An important increase in the amount of newspaper advertising planned is a part of the new program.

Besides the page and half page advertisements which will feature the Californians Inc. campaign, it is planned to increase the scope of publicity during the second year, both by stories and pictures. Motion pictures will be an important element of this program and their distribution has been successfully arranged for.

The plan to sell Central and Northern California to the people of other states will take four lines:

First, the opportunities in California for making a better living.

Second, the appeal of California scenery and climate to the tourist and the person seeking better and more attractive living conditions.

Third, the advantages for certain success in farming.

Fourth, the industrial and trade opportunities, particularly of the Bay cities district and adjacent towns.

"The complete advertising and publicity activities outlined" says Dr. Rastall in his report, "give a fairly continuous saturation of the country with the California idea. The progressive American citizen will see California advertising, he will read stories about California and see California pictures in his magazines and newspapers. He is likely to see at least one California reel in his motion picture theatre during the year and literature will be constantly within his notice in hotels and railroad offices. This continuous reiteration of the California idea should be effective not only in enhancing his interest but in the probability of his ultimately sending in a coupon and opening the way to follow-up effort."

Reference is made by Dr. Rastall to the results attained in the first year's campaign, which appears to have brought from one to seven or more families to practically every city and important district north of Tehachapi.

HOW MONEY IS SPENT

It is always a matter of interest to know what becomes of the large amount of money received each year by a great industrial plant. The distribution of every dollar received in the years 1918-1920 has recently been shown by the General Electric Co.

4.17 cents out of every dollar were paid to the employees of the Company as compensation. 40.6 cents spent for materials, supplies, etc., 4.7 cents 5.3 cents taxes, 4 cents dividends to all stock surplus re-invested for enlargement of business, holders, 2.5 cents transportation, telephone and telegraph and 1.2 cents interest on borrowed capital.

It should be borne in mind that by far the greater part of the amounts shown as expended for materials and supplies, taxes, public utility service, etc., was in turn paid out by those who received it, for wages and salaries.

Thus does industry cause a rapid distribution of money among wage earners. Conditions which encourage industrial development are the surest safeguard of prosperity.

Edmund Vance Cooke Eats Vegetables

LITTLE did we hope for such an indorsement. And so soon. Only last week we admonished Campbell folk to "Grow Great on Greens," and now we hear that Edmund Vance Cooke is a vegetarian. This famous author, wit, philosopher and impersonator, soon to entertain in Campbell, nurtures his genius on roots and tops.

Just listen to this from J. U. Higinbotham, journalist, of Saratoga, who writes (see Sunday's Mercury) of Cooke: "Those in the know (about Cooke's liking for vegetables) realize that it is the season for sharpening the can opener if Cooke drops in on them in the winter time."

What an indorsement for canned vegetables. How fortunate that Campbell merchants are well stocked against the day of Cooke's coming, Thursday, Nov. 15.

For instance, only last week Blaine's received a stock of JHN SOLID PACK TOMATOES. New pack, this season's crop. These tomatoes are red ripe, richly flavored, the best of the JHN stock, and that means really best. The price is 20c.

The new pack JHN TINY SUGAR CORN came in two or three weeks ago. Try this delicious corn that is revolutionizing the trade. Smallest, tenderest, most meltingly sweet grains you ever tasted. Sold in the high class city stores for 25c; but though we yield those city stores nothing in class, we'll beat them on price, at 20c.

CRANBERRIES are in. One of the first customers to buy said she found every berry fine. Cranberries are sold by the pound nowadays, to conform with the law. Two pounds for 45c.

SEAL SHELL EGGS are being used extensively for cake making. The low price, 49c, is attractive.

Our fresh eggs are high, but they are really fresh.

A new line of candy! Pretty to look at, better to eat. And, joy of wives and sweethearts, a stock of high class milk chocolates in boxes. Tell HIM.

It's a good time to buy potatoes by the sack—not of the wily peddler, who beats you and stays away until your anger cools. Buy of your grocer, who is every minute on the job to make good.

We learned this week of the advent of a son on October 14, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall of North Central Ave.

Mrs. R. E. Dunphy went to Berkeley Tuesday to spend the remainder of the week with her daughter, Harriet, and a former Nebraska friend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Smith, nee Alice Johnson, are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son, Duane Lomar, on November 3. The young man tipped the scales at 8¾ pounds.

S. N. Hedegard and John Lund returned last week from their rice harvest which they report very good this season. C. G. Kennedy, who was assisting in the harvest also returned home.

Mrs. E. E. Arnott was operated upon Monday for gall stones and at last report was doing nicely. This is the third operation which Mrs. Arnott has undergone since coming to Campbell.

The regular monthly meeting of the High School P. T. A. will be held at the school next Tuesday, November 13, at three P. M. The program will be under the auspices of Mrs. Hummel, chairman of Education.

JOHN PATRICK

John Patrick passed away Sunday after a long and painful illness, suffering from cancer. He was a native of Nova Scotia aged 71 years. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge at Fortuna, California.

BE A FRIEND

The two groups comprising the Campbell Union High School and the Campbell Union Grammar School districts, will, in the coming year, starting with the 18th of this month, have a greater opportunity to know what it means to be a friend than ever before. Old and young alike will, thru their gifts to the Campbell Community Chest fund and the County Y. M. C. A. work for boys, know what a real pleasure it is to be a friend to those in need. A case of distress in any of these school districts can, thru the agencies allied in the Community Chest, get more certain and speedy attention than by the old methods of relief. In these days of strenuous life, both the rich and the poor make so many contracts,—meet so many vicissitudes, that every one must feel a sense of security in a knowledge of the helping hand as it is extended thru the Community Chest. This is our opportunity to be a friend and help one another.

If you feel kindly toward this movement and would like to give a few hours of your time during Community Chest week, November 18th to 25th, please ring up some member of the committee. Love for the cause has the wit to win, we will draw a circle that will take you in.

F. A. MERRILL CALLED TO REST

Franklin A. Merrill, who has been a constant sufferer for several years, passed away at his home in Campbell Friday, November 2, and private funeral services were held Monday at 10 o'clock from the parlors of Hocking and Williams.

Mr. Merrill was born in Portland, Maine, October 14, 1854, and had but just passed his sixty-ninth birthday.

He was married forty-three years ago and came to California several years ago, remaining but a short time when they returned to Maine. A few months later they returned and have since made Campbell their home.

Mr. Merrill was very cheerful and uncomplaining during his years of illness and death was a real release to him as during his last weeks his sufferings were intensified.

For several years Mr. Merrill was sexton at the Congregational church where he has been greatly missed since his failing health necessitated giving up his duties.

He leaves a widow, Amelia A. Merrill, one son, Dr. W. I. Merrill, and two grandchildren, Stephen and Annette, to whom the sincerest sympathy is extended for the loss of their loved one.

The remains were taken to Mount Olivet and the ashes were sent to Maine, to be placed in the family lot.

SCHOOL NOTES

The girls' volley ball team of the Los Gatos Grammar School played a volley ball game last Thursday afternoon with Campbell.

The Campbell girls played a good game as did also Los Gatos, the score being 21 to 16 in favor of Campbell.

Campbell will play a return game Wednesday. Those playing are: Inez Frank, Helen Terro, Myra Lester, Julia Buscigno, Lera Covey, Cynthia Morris, Pamela Weston, Marie Satariano, Margaret Collins; substitutes, Martha Carlson and Helen Luce.

The Home and School Club held its monthly meeting last Tuesday afternoon. There was quite a large attendance, Miss Dunlap's room, the low first again receiving the prize for the most mothers present. A representative of the State Dairy Council gave a very interesting and instructive talk on child dieting and the pasteurization of milk.

After the meeting refreshments were served in the cafeteria.

DON'T HOLD BOXES

A recent issue of the Santa Rosa "Press Democrat" contained an account of the arrest of a rancher on a charge of having in his possession fruit boxes belonging to the California Packing Corporation. These boxes were stencilled with the company's mark and were being used in other than company business.

As there may be others who are ignorant of the law in this respect we are printing the law.

The amended trade-mark act declared that violations of the law will be misdemeanors, punishable for the first offense by imprisonment for not less than ten days nor by more than six months or by a fine of fifty cents for every container used or held. In the case of second violations, the act provides for imprisonment for not less than 20 days nor more than a year or by a fine of from $1.00 to $5.00 for each container or by both fine and imprisonment.

RAY ON VARSITY

Raymond J. Hulsman, son of J. P. Hulsman, and an alumnus of C. U. H. S. has been named by the Santa Clara Varsity for the annual Santa Clara-St Mary's big game of football tomorrow at Ewing Field, San Francisco. It has been announced by Coach Eddie Kienholz.

This game is to these two schools what the Stanford U. C. game is to those universities. Last year St Mary's won 9-7 and Santa Clara hopes to secure revenge this season.

ARMISTICE DAY

Again the wheel of time has turned To a part in history's play That reminds us of that eleventh month Eleventh hour and eleventh day; In the year of nineteen eighteen, Where leaders great did meet For a temporal agreement— After efforts to defeat One another; The Allies and Teutons decide To be peaceful for a season While at home each could abide.

Where they'd practice no foul play, That this pledge might be remembered They called it Armistice Day. Days have passed, yes, years since that day; But each year we celebrate The day our country rose to fame, And the Teutons met their fate— Where Kaiser Bill, his weakness And crime was forced to see That Uncle Sam could play his game And could say—"God and me."

Then Kaiser Bill, his crown did doff, And to Holland bent his way, An exile from his country, For Bill had had his day. Races come and Nations go; War reigns, then peace again; One begets the other, First happiness, then pain. As long as man can only see The result made tangible, When he sees not law and principle, He knows not the inevitable.

Oh, human race, you are divine! That you this day may see Mankind as one—flesh and blood, Know oneness and be free— From sickness, sorrow, bondage, From destruction, war and strife; Free to come and go where'er you choose, Know freedom and know life.

To know that every country Upon this earthly sod Is and should be just one country, And belongs to you and God.

Then let us all in unity Make this day the day of all; Wave high our country's flag for peace, Then watch discord soon fall. Let those who know and see and hear, Be leaders in this play, To bring peace, heaven and plenty To the earth this very day. Let us make our dear America The seat of Law and God— Freedom and Grand Mastery, In the earth on which we tread.

Right here in California, The Golden State so pure Is the spot to do all great deeds, Tie the Devil, sound and sure, "By our works we shall be known," Then let none of us slack; Help place all things in order, Where we found them—put them back. Those who live in war and discord— Let it be—that is their life. The result means death and sorrow, Destructions, failures—strife.

But let our fair America Prove her Wisdom and her love— Wise to every nation—country, Wise—but harmless as the dove. Then she'll be the real true Goddess. Of God's country and the world, Keep the peace flag waving ever, If sweet peace we'd have unfurled, In all mankind—all nations; Have each face tell the tale, That they know not disappointment, Then will no human fail—

To join in happy union With harmonious voices free— They will sing that old familiar song, "My Country 'tis of thee," May her banner with her stars and stripes

And colors that are true To nature's plan and system The red, the white, the blue— Ever stand the test that's fiery. For a people who can be Worthy of God's country, and a land of Liberty.

The Gardner

Passing by a garden spot, where flowers in profusion grew, I paused to marvel at it's wonderful keep, and it's perfect blooms old and new, Soon to my view came its keeper, so I told her all I had seen, And the light that shone in the depths of her eyes from my mind it will not wean, She said one word in her answer to me, which carried both joy and sorrow, And I wondered just what her vision might be, for the word she said was "Tomorrow."

I too would be a garden keeper, where naught but the best plants are sown, Whose seeds I would scatter o'er the hearts of men, where ne'er before they were sown, These seeds which are Kindness, Truth, and Love, will bring blooms that cannot be surpassed, For the soil runs rich where Life's river flows, and fertile seeds grow fast, Now my thoughts turn back to that garden of flowers, in a mood twixt joy and sorrow, And I wonder what she saw when her eyes grew dim, as she softly said "Tomorrow," George F. Simpson,

The skulls of prehistoric men found in the excavations at Santa Barbara are held to be the most important find of recent years and will bring about a complete revision of anthropological theories concerning the North American continent. Dr. Harrington of the Smithsonian Institution said they definitely established that North America was discovered thousands of years before Columbus, by a primitive race, just in the transitory period from anthropoid to man.
